MARCO POLO HONGKONG HOTEL CELEBRATES SUSTAINABILITY RECOGNITION FROM EARTHCHECK FOR THE FOURTH YEAR

Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel has been committed to being a socially responsible hotelier.

6 September 2021, Hong Kong SAR, China – For the fourth year in a row, Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel has been recognised with Silver Certification by EarthCheck, the world’s leading business advisory group, specialising in sustainability and destination management for the travel and tourism industry.

The Silver Certification recognises Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel as a leader among sustainable tourism operators (Accommodation – Business Hotel), certified to international EarthCheck Company Standards. The community contribution rating has improved this year, as the Hotel actively supports initiatives for social and community development.

Mr Dalip Singh, General Manager of Marco Polo Hotels – Hong Kong said, “The unprecedented pandemic impact on the tourism and hotel industry over the past two years are global challenges, with time needed for recovery and revival. While we’re embracing the new normal, our efforts and dedication to environmental and social sustainability practices continue. Thank you to our Associates and Guests in supporting our Green Policy, making the world a better place to live in for future generations”.

In addition, based on the latest Seafood Guide launched by WWF – Hong Kong in July 2021, Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel has increased our sustainable seafood efforts, including alternatives to Boston Lobster as it’s now on the guide’s Red List. The sustainable in-room dining menu is now available while Cucina, an Italian restaurant has also
