MARCO POLO ORTIGAS MANILA WELCOMES THE YEAR OF THE RABBIT WITH MORE ABUNDANCE AND PROSPERITY

Manila, Philippines, 6 January, 2023 - In honor of its Chinese heritage, Marco Polo Ortigas Manila (MPOM) is celebrating Chinese New Year with exciting offers and activities throughout January.

Known as “The Philippines’ First Sky Hotel”, MPOM stands tall at 45 floors and is centrally located in the vibrant Ortigas Commercial Business District. It continues to be recognized in the global hospitality landscape, coveting the Five-Star Award for its sixth consecutive year in 2022 by Forbes Travel Guide.

The five-star hotel is currently offering the traditional Nian Gao, more commonly known as Tikoy, until January 22, 2023. The delicious rice cake comes in four variants: Double Gold Bar Nian Gao (Php 2,598); Double Flavored - Red Dates Sugar and Fortune Orange (Php 2,598); Red Dates Sugar Round Tikoy (Php 1,898); and Fortune Orange Round Tikoy (Php 1,898). From January 2 to 15, 2023, those who purchase a minimum of 10 boxes can enjoy 10% off their order.

The Hotel will also be hosting a 2023 forecast reading with no less than Feng Shui Master Joseph Chau. Known as a primary figure in Chinese geomancy, he has mastered the ancient Asian tradition and created a feng shui compass that guides enthusiast from all over the world to prosperity. The highly anticipated activity will take place on January 20, 2023, at the award-winning, authentic Cantonese Lung Hin restaurant located on the 44th floor.

From January 16 to 22, 2023, Lung Hin will be pulling out all the stops with a Lucky Rabbit Chinese New Year Set Menu. The 10-course menu will include Salmon Yu Sheung; Sea Moss Soup, Pork, Dried Oyster, and Lotus Root; Work Fried Prawn in XO Sauce and Golden Crispy Prawn; Braised Calmex Mexico Abalone, Japan Shitake Mushroom in Abalone Sauce; Baked Fresh Scallop with Cream Cheese Sauce; Steamed Lapu-Lapu Fillet, Shredded Pork; Mushroom and Red Date; Hong Kong-Style Roasted Duck; Braised Fu Noodle and Dried Fish; Rabbit Marshmallow; and Ginger Tea-Sweetened Soup with Black Sesame Glutinous Dumpling. This special menu will be offered at Php 52,888 for 10 people and Php 26,888 for five people.

Rounding up the festivities will be the grand lion and dragon dance performance on January 22, 2023, a culturally visual feast for the hotel’s guests on that day.

“Chinese New Year is very dear to our hearts as we pay homage to the hotel’s Chinese roots. It will be a monthlong celebration of indulgent Tikoy and other sumptuous fares, and unique activities to welcome more prosperity this new year,” said Colin Healy, General Manager of Marco Polo Ortigas Manila. “We take pride in being more than a luxury establishment, but also a hotel of service excellence for its guests. This year, we will continue to work hard to ensure that every experience they have here will be enjoyable, meaningful, and made into lasting, cherished memories.”

Complementing the hotel’s world-class service are its luxury hotel rooms, impressive views of the Ortigas skyline, diverse food and beverage outlets, an indoor temperature-controlled pool, a fitness center, and the Flow spa, among other amenities fit for a modern world-class traveller.
