

COVID-19 Preventative Measures at Marco Polo Xiamen

25 March 2021 (Xiamen, China) - Marco Polo Xiamen remains committed to provide a healthy and welcoming environment for all our guests and associates. Our hotel team is taking stringent measures to maintain the highest standards of health and hygiene at all times.

Hygiene Measures

Guestrooms

Additional measures are in place to the highest standards of housekeeping. All guestrooms are aerated for at least 15 minutes daily. Approved disinfectant is used to clean all surfaces. Spray atomiser is used on all other inaccessible surfaces. The hotel has appointed a professional disinfection company to maintain all ventilation and drainage systems regularly.

Public Areas

The hotel increases the frequency of cleaning and disinfection of all operating facilities and equipment. Our associates are mandatory to follow the timetable to clean the surfaces in all public areas, including furniture, door handles, and elevator control panels.

Restaurants

At our operating restaurants, the hotel takes extra step to constantly cleaning and sanitisation of equipment and enhance food safety standards. All food items must be received and handled carefully in the storage and kitchen areas. Our associates only allow products with an official and valid certification to enter the hotel.

Guests

Temperature check and a valid health code are required from all guests when they enter the hotel. All guests must wear face mask at all public areas. Recent travel history and nucleic acid test report are required from guest staying at the hotel. Guests are required to wear disposable gloves during the pick-up of any food at all food stations.

Associates

All associates must wear a face shield and mask when on duty. Multiple temperature checks are required daily and the hotel arranges nucleic acid tests for all associates regularly.

With a series of comprehensive hygiene protection measures, Marco Polo Xiamen strives to deliver a healthy environment to assure guests' staying and dining experience.
